

From Aspiration to Action: A Personal Leadership Transformation

This presentation summarizes my transformative learnings through the Journey to the C-Suite program and Madaraka Executives, highlighting key insights and future aspirations.

Key Learnings from The Program

Reviewing all I have learnt and application of the knowledge is the difference between my dream and its actualization.

01

To strike a balance between life and work is not feasible, how about we intergrate work and life?!

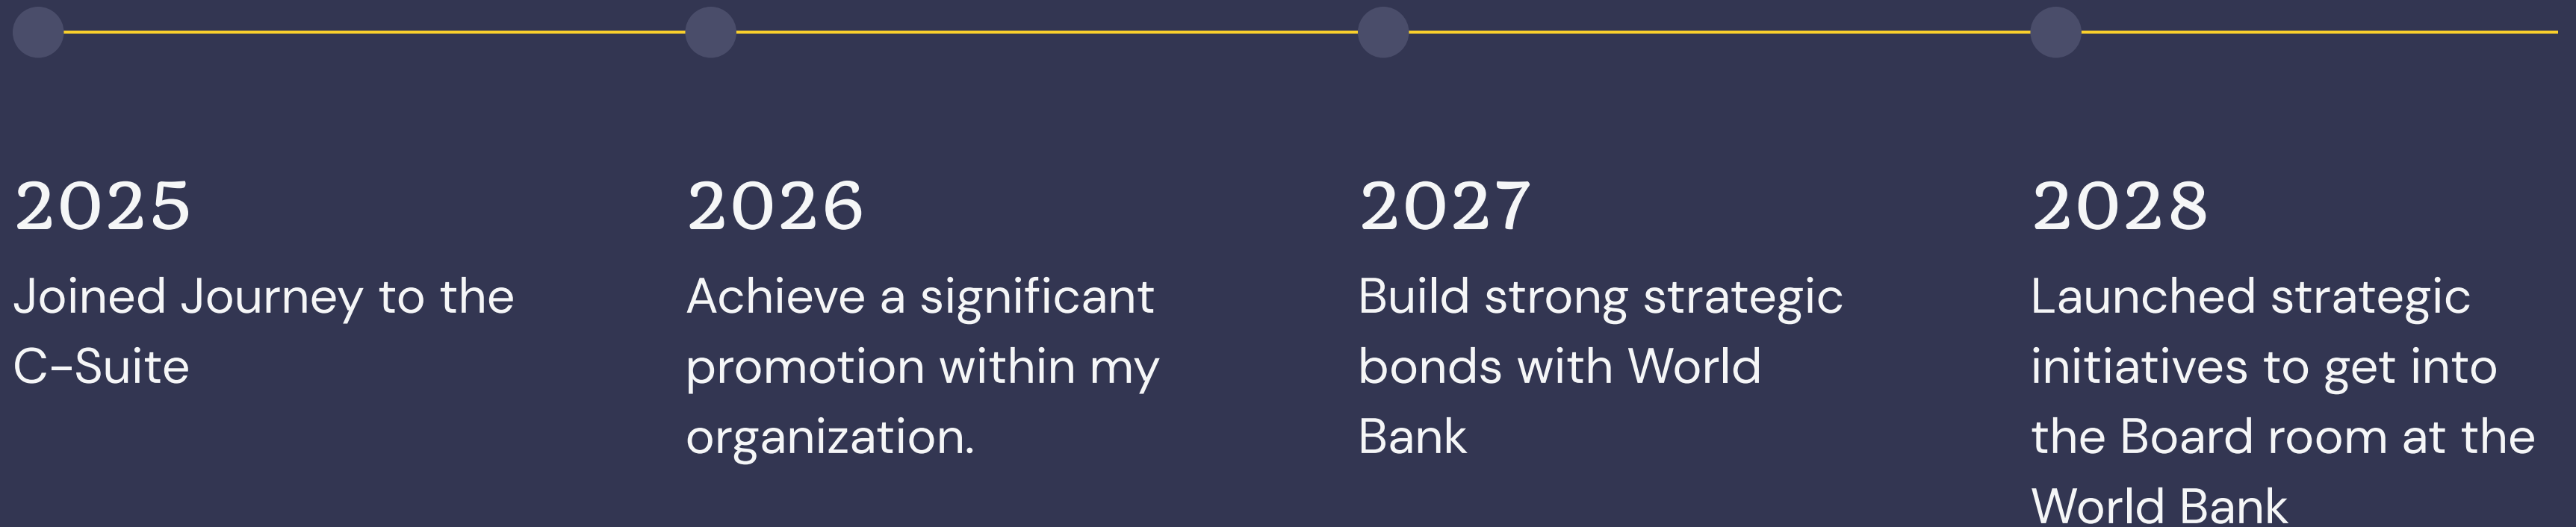

02

The dots always connect– I recall this group meeting I almost cancelled because of my work schedule, with no sight of the critical decision maker whose guidance got us leverage as an Airline.

03

The C-suite is like a run way, it is short so for me to be sustainably there, I need soft skills as a leader and not a manager. But also, plan for my life after the C-suite.

Reflections & Growth Timeline

Transformative Speaker Insights

DK

Never undermine the Underdog. My weakness when explored can be my competitive advantage like David Vs Goliath. The former was minimized so he took that to his advantage.

Mrs. Jenifer Musisi

Stay humble and decide ahead of time what you can or can't do!

Mrs. Janet Navuga Bugembe

The dots always connect. Every thing will one day make sense.

Personal Leadership Transformation

As I look ahead, my commitment to leadership excellence is stronger. I will navigate new challenges, seize opportunities, and inspire those around me to reach their fullest potential.
